Her Inspiring Story:

Niyandhana shines in Grade 6 with a solid 73.5% score in the Scholarship and Sponsorship examination, showing strong potential despite family uncertainties. Her father's role as a movie assistant director brings irregular income, while her mother steadily works as a private school teacher to support the family. This new talent at TOPS demonstrates resilience and academic promise ready to flourish.

Family Background:

The family navigates financial instability from the father's unpredictable earnings in the film industry, balanced by the mother's dedicated teaching position. Their commitment to Niyandhana's education underscores the need for steady support to help her thrive without worry.
